MERIDIAN PARKS & RECREATION

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Meridian Parks & Recreation activities are instrumental in creating a sense of connection and community while also providing fun activities. As a sponsor you get the benefit of building relationships with customers of all ages while also helping build a stronger Meridian.

The population of Meridian has grown dramatically. It is now the second largest city in Idaho with a population more than 130,000. Half of which are new residents. Do they know who you are?

THESE ARE JUST A FEW OF THE BENEFITS YOUR BUSINESS MAY RECEIVE WHEN SPONSORING A MERIDIAN PARKS & RECREATION EVENT:

- Image Enhancement as an Engaged Community Business
- Brand Reinforcement as the Local Choice
- Shape Consumer Attitudes
- Drive Sales
- Create Positive Publicity
- Heighten Visibility
- Differentiate Yourself from your Competitors
- Build Community and Contribute to Quality of Life in Meridian

A young boy wearing a red baseball cap, a green hoodie, and blue sneakers is standing on a grassy bank, fishing with a red and black rod. The pond is calm with a few ducks in the distance. In the background, there are trees, a blue bench, and a silver SUV parked on a paved area.

UNPLUG & BE OUTSIDE

Every year we talk about the value of unplugging and getting outside for mental, physical and emotional health. Now, maybe more than ever, it's vital we pull away from our screens, connect as a community and find activities that bring joy into our lives.

Meridian Parks & Recreation is excited to offer a week's worth of free activities in sports, arts and recreation for all ages.

Kick off: Saturday, May 11, Kleiner Park
Field Day: Wednesday, May 15, Settlers Park
Free Classes: All week May 11 - 18
